

WINNING WITH PEOPLE

“You can dream, create, design and build the most wonderful place in the world, but it requires people to make the dream a reality.” Walt Disney

Since 1816, Taylor has been a corporate citizen of Bedford, Ohio. Our Company founder, Benjamin Fitch, was the original settler of Bedford. Consequently, there has always been a close bond between Taylor and the people of the Bedford community.

We recognize the important role that education can play in a young person’s life. Since 1995, Taylor has provided product donations to the Bedford School District’s Annual Holly Ball Fundraiser. In 2009, we committed to financial scholarship contributions to the Bedford School District through the year 2024. Taylor employees also volunteer personal paid time to educational and vocational programs at Bedford High School, The Rotary Club, the Bedford Historical Society, and the Finance Committee for the School District Levy Review.

True sustainable practices not only interact with and engage citizens from within the community they also create value and awareness for a company’s employees. At Taylor, we rely on our employees’ expertise, imagination and effort to drive the growth of our business.

We provide an engaging work environment focused on comprehensive compensation and benefits packages. We strive to make Taylor a meaningful and rewarding workplace by paying a living wage that creates prosperity and support for our employees’ families. We also offer employee medical coverage, a wellness program, 11 paid holidays, up to 5 weeks paid vacation, and retirement plans. Our Bedford, OH and Lynwood, CA workforces have been represented by organized labor since 1953 and 1937, respectively. We enjoy good working relations with our unions and we consider our Company to be a friend of organized labor.

As Larry Bossidy, retired CEO of Honeywell stated, “At the end of the day, you bet on people, not strategies”. People - our success depends on them.
